Save you money....see the free British video that this is parodying

By B. J Robbins

Have I heard right!!!! Barber and Rylance providing a genuine biography of Willilam Shakespeare and giving him credit for the plays with his name on them? This is incredible since Barber thinks Marlowe wrote the plays....Kit Marlowe and terrific playwright who died in 1593, so could not have written the Canon...and Rylance, a doubter, who appeared in "Anonymous" and who obviously thinks Oxford wrote the plays, yes that Oxford who died in 1604, before some of the greatest tragedies and the 3 romances and Henry VIII came out.

You'd be better off watching the British serious that this book is parodying. Fifty, I think, experts provide expert opinion on various aspects of Shakespeare's life. They don't have an ax to grind like these two buffoons.
