Cool smoothies and hot sex...

Tiffany has dreamed of opening her very own smoothie bar. Creating fun and tasty concoctions is her specialty. But first she needs to sell her idea, and that will require bringing samples of her best recipes. She calls on Marcus and Shane, her hot and handsome best friends, to help her decide which ones to choose.

Marcus and Shane have worshipped Tiffany for years and would do anything in the world for her, even share her if her heart so desires. In support of her opening her own smoothie bar, they agree to be her guinea pigs. However, a morning of taste testing quickly becomes more about pleasure than business.

Not worth reading

By Kindlist

This is NOT the book that was made into a movie starring Audrey Hepburn. That one was by Truman Capote. This one is essentially a porno book about 2 guys who are best friends and who have sex simultaneously with a young woman who is also their friend. How do they do that? The book describes it in detail! Maybe it should be renamed 50 Shades of Black. I bought it by accident, thinking it was the other story.

Plagerized title

By Jeffrey C. Isenhour

I think it's beyond bad behavior to plagerize a title from Truman Capote. I can't give it zero stars so here's one.

allegories that compare smoothies to oral sex left a bad taste in my mouth

By D S

the title of my review says it all. Badly written soap-porn for fiendish divorces incapable of finding younger men to satiate their post-menopausal sex drives. Also for kink-ster foodies who enjoys smooth food-play (lit.er.all.y). Finally, the authors brazen use of T.Capote's title from the genuine and original, work-of-art, "Breakfast at Tiffany's" left a bad taste in my mouth.
